What are the benefits?

You can check your personal shareholding in Barclays and use the special facility that will calculate how much your Barclays shares are worth.

You can look at details of your Barclays dividend payments received during the tax year to help you complete your tax return.

You will be able to see shareholder documents such as the Report and Accounts and notices of shareholder meetings as soon as they are published. You will be sent an e-mail telling you they are available.

You will be informed as soon as final and interim results are published. You will know the dividend rate on the day that it is announced.

You can print off the forms that you need to change your address, have your dividend paid into your Bank or Building Society account or to receive your dividends as shares. You can also print a form to transfer your shares to another person.

You can fill in a voting form to appoint someone to vote for you at the Annual General Meeting.
